

Aimmee's Short Bio/Introduction

Aimmee is the author of her biography, "Tears of Hope," her true life story of a Middle Eastern Christian girl who lived 13 years through the 1975 Lebanese Civil War, where she was faced with enormous obstacles and many challenges. Due to her severe dyslexia and the war, she was forced to leave school at the 4th grade, lost her dream of becoming a teacher and was left with no opportunities or hope.

Despite having only a fourth grade education, she challenged herself and became an author, creator, producer/director of three dynamic and unique online tv shows at AKExpertsTV.com, the founder of the AK Experts online academy, a transformational keynote speaker, a seminar/webinar presenter, a host and the founder of AK Experts Productions, LLC. Aimmee was nominated by the "Women's Federation for World Peace" to be appointed as an Ambassador for Peace. She received the honor from UPF in 2017

Aimmee did not become a teacher; instead, she became a powerful inspirational and transformational speaker. She is helping people around the world transform their obstacles into opportunities!
